Carmel O'Riordan - RIP

Many years ago I met a human dynamo! As an active member of the Saggart and Rathcoole Community Council, this lady was always busy, always doing. She came into her own when the Community Centre was built and funds were needed to run the centre. She suggested a dog show be held, not any dog show but The National Championships. Nod your head, stand back, say Yes Carmel! To my memory show rings appeared and hundreds of dogs hit Rathcoole!

A whole new experience for many people, without a problem for Carmel or so it seemed for the rest of us. She gave us the date and we stood back and watched in utter amazement as it came about each year. Carmel managed to do all this whilst at the same time raising a large family of 9 children who we know will miss her dearly.

- Jack O'Brien

The Community Council is fully aware of the huge part Carmel played in establishing the Community Centre and offer their sympathies to her family.

All Welcome

St. Patrick's Day Parade

The 4 Districts St Patrick's Day parade was the biggest yet and thanks to funding received from the SDCC, we were able to create a more traditional & theatrical parade. We hope to build on this in the future to make it the biggest parade in South County Dublin!

St Mary's GFC parade committee would like to thank the following; The St. Laurence O'Toole Pipe Band, the Gentlemen from the Roger Casement ONET, the Grand Marshals Darren & Davina and Ken Murphy for providing the beautiful car for them. All our sports and children's groups who took part especially those who put in a huge effort to prepare floats. A special mention to Kelly in Happy Feet for the wonderful Willie Wonka Float. The Civil Defence Clondalkin and Matt Reid for the Green Goddess Fire Engine & the Auxiliary Fire Service for all their vehicles. Ger Dungan & John O'Brien for the fine selection of tractors and machinery.

A special thanks to Brookfield Music Club for providing great entertainment back in St. Mary's after the parade.

We would also like to thank all who came out to support the parade. Our wonderful dedicated volunteers, the Gardai in Rathcoole especially Garda Frank Howe, The Rathcoole Community Centre especially Trish O'Halloran, and finally Christy McDonnell, Ger Dungan, Midland Truck & Trailer & Shay Reilly for flags along the parade route.

See you all again next year!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Carmel Farrelly, of Saggart died 18/01/15

Carmel's husband Dick and family wish to extend their most sincere and heartfelt thanks to all those who provided such extraordinary support to them at this most difficult time.

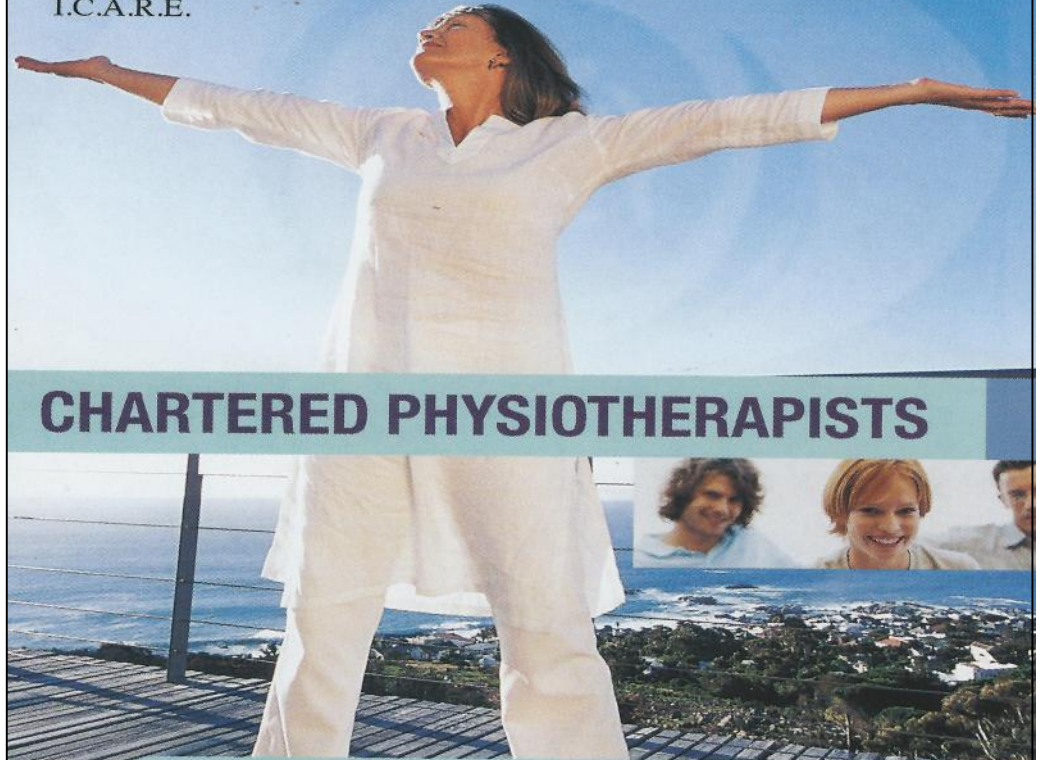

To our neighbours and friends and all who sent mass cards, flowers, and to the many people who called to the house or attended the removal service and funeral.

We would also like to thank Fr Enda Cunningham, Fr John Jacob, Saggart Choir, Tallaght Hospital, Dr Clarke, Judith Heuston, St. Mary's GFC, Robert Roberts, The Anvil and An Garda Síochána.

A Chairde,

Forty years ago on 1 July 1975, Scoil Chrónáin opened its doors to its first students, 59 children in Infant and First Classes. There were three teachers, of whom I had the honour to be Principal. Now, the school is a thriving entity, still located on the original site in the heart of the village, but with much improved facilities.

I would like to hold a reunion of the past parents, and past pupils in the Citywest Hotel, Saggart, on 20th June 2015 at 8pm. It would be wonderful to meet again the people who remember the prefabs, the mud, the toilets (!), the rodents, the adventures, the fun. There will be plenty of stories to exchange. Please come, and please pass on the information to anyone who might enjoy the evening.

All are welcome, past and present. It is an evening to celebrate experiences we shared.

Contact: Brenda Mac Ginneá, 0872999616, brendanish@gmail.com

Please email, text or call me to indicate your intention to participate in this event. I will need to give Citywest Hotel an idea of how many guests to expect on the night.

Daichead bliain ó shoin ar an 1 Iúil 1975, d'oscail Scoil Chrónáin a doirse don chéad ghrúpa leanbh – 59 páiste, i ranganna Naíonán agus Rang 1. Triúr múinteoirí. Anois, is scoil mhór, rathúil í, a fhás agus a fhorbair i gcaitheamh na mbliain.

Mar chéad phríomhoide ar an scoil, ba mhaith liom teacht le chéile d'iarscoláirí agus d'iarthuismitheoirí na scoile a ghairm le chéile in Óstán Citywest, Saggart ar an 20 Meitheamh ag a 8pm. Beidh bia, deoch, ceol agus craic againn. Inseoidimid sean-scéalta agus cloisfimid nua-scéalta. Cuirfimid aithne arís ar a chéile.

Fáilte roimh gach aon duine a bhí nó a tá bainteach le Scoil Chrónáin.

A Rathcoole Memory from John Dowling

One Sunday morning my cousin John told me that his mother, Norah Dowling, who ran the local Post Office in the mid 1950s in the front room of her house, next door to The Rathcoole Inn was getting himself and his brother Anthony ready for 8.00 o'clock mass in Saggart, the parish church. At that time there was no Catholic church in Rathcoole and a bus service operated to take people to Saggart for mass.

While Norah was getting herself ready there was a knock on the front door and she asked John to answer it. He found a dark, handsome, foreign-type well dressed man with sallow skin at the door who asked to use the telephone in the Post Office. He also noticed a large green and silver car, the likes of which he had never seen before, parked outside with a woman in the passenger seat. He found out later that it was a La Gonda.

His mother instructed John to send the man to the local 'Barracks' (Police Station) because she was in a rush to get to mass on time.

John informed the man and a short time afterwards the switch-board buzzed in the post office requesting a line to make a call, the barracks was line 2 and the post office line 1.

"That'll be the man who was here" said Norah and instructed John to plug in the line so he could make his call. This connected him to the GPO in Dublin so he could make an international call.

The next day the local Garda called to the Post Office and enquired if Norah knew who the stranger was who was anxious to make a telephone call at such an early hour on a Sunday morning? She did not and when informed by Garda Braden that HE was The Aga Kahn she uttered the words 'Jesus Christ'. Also he gave the Garda a five pound note for all his trouble. The woman in the car with the man was Rita Hayworth, the movie star, and he told her that they were on the way to The Curragh to see his horses.
